▲
A 'made in India' turnkey project overseas by one of the many Grindlays clients, Western India Erectors.

For projects and products 'made in India': Grindlays foreign currency loans.

For quite some time, the tide in international business has been in India's favour.

Opportunities to take it at the flood, crop up in many guises. Perhaps, a fertiliser plant in Ghana or a chemical complex in Indonesia needs Indian collaboration. Or, maybe, there's a big export order for Indian electronic components, even know-how.

Wherever there's need for foreign exchange financing, there's always Grindlays with its worldwide facilities at your service through branches/offices in 40 countries, including India. And, a Merchant Banking professional at your doorstep.

The other facets of Grindlays pioneering achievements are equally useful: pre-investment studies, in-depth project reports, global market probes, advice on acquisitions and mergers, project finance, management of public issues, indeed the whole gamut of Merchant Banking.

For businessmen, this means professional assistance that goes well beyond the bounds of conventional banking practice.

As for Grindlays, the spirit that inspires this approach springs straight from its heritage of professionalism and service.
